My dear Sir

I believe you are in charge of the Muzrai Department. Could you therefore supply me with information as to the endowments of the Hoysaleswara temple at Halebid – their amount, from what source derived, and especially how they now in force originated? There is

I understand something of special interest connected with this matter

Yours truly,

Director of Archaeological Researches

My dear Sir,

Adverting to your D.O. of the 7th ultimo, regarding the Hoysaleswara temple at Halebid, I wrote to the Inam Superintt in Mysore requesting him to furnish me with any information available in his Office on the subject, and in reply he has forwarded a copy of Column 16 of the Inam Register that the services of the "Opadhivants should be dispensed with and from the saving effected, the pay of the Archick and Parcharak and Kavalgar (the last mentioned man doing his duties regularly) raised and the balance, if any, expended in lighting the temple every day. Subject to such orders as the Inam Superintendent may pass on the subject above alluded to, an annual payment of Rupees 174-0-5 or monthly Rs-A-P 13-15-8 + extraordinary expenses. Rs-A-P 6-4-5 yearly be continued and confirmed to the institution so long as the temple is in good order and service rendered under Rule VII. ——
